10 steps to holidays
or an alternative candidate graduate's guide

1. Get ready! The supervisor notifies the Dean's Office of your diploma defence.

2. The Dean's Office employee enters this information into the USOS system.

3. Now, it's your turn! You have three days to enter the following into the APD system:
   - ✓ the language and title of your diploma paper,
   - ✓ the summary and keywords (in PL and EN),
   - ✓ your diploma paper in the PDF file, with the following name: UWr-21-student's number-year,
   - ✓ zipped attachments in ZIP or other files (RAR, 7zip, GZIP).

4. Your diploma paper is verified by the anti-plagiarism system. It's cool, right?

5. After the verification, you have one week to submit the printout of your diploma paper to the Dean's Office. Remember about the attachments.

6. Take a look at your diploma paper. It should have:
   - ✓ the font – not larger than 12,
   - ✓ the line spacing – not larger than 1.5,
   - ✓ the binding – the binding is not just any binding; it is "thin cardboard with a paper spine in light blue Pantone 284". That's it!

7. And the final steps! The supervisor and reviewer upload their reviews into the APD system.

8. The Dean's Office employee checks the course credits and ECTS.

9. Everything is OK. You can defend your diploma paper! Good luck!

10. And have nice holidays!
